NEW FACES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA: A PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT CELEBRATING BRITISH COLUMBIA'S DIVERSITY
PRESENTED IN COLLABORATION BETWEEN CVIMS AND ISSOFBC

Through a partnership with the Central Vancouver Island Multicultural Society (CVIMS) and its Immigrant Welcome Centre, Immigrant Services Society of BC (ISSofBC) is bringing the NEW FACES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA photography exhibit to the Nanaimo Museum from March 2 – 9, 2010.

Building on the success of last year's New Faces of Vancouver photography exhibit, ISSofBC is delivering this arts engagement project to celebrate the diversity and multiculturalism of our province.

Partially funded by the Ministry of Citizen's Services through the Embrace BC program, NEW FACES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA is a travelling photography exhibit showcasing photographs by local artists that depict the different faces, traits, and emotions of the myriad individuals who call British Columbia their home and celebrates the diversity and multiculturalism of our province. The exhibit will also travel to Abbotsford and Prince George before ending the tour in Vancouver in May 2010.
